IOWA Centers for Enterprise, a dynamic new business and commercialization center located in the University Capitol Centre in the heart of the University campus.

IOWA Centers for Enterprise
• Fosters economic development by connecting experts, entrepreneurs, and innovators inside and outside the University.
• Helps businesses, communities and organizations gain access to innovative University research and researchers as well as to key resources and training.
• Assists faculty inventors and researchers navigate the path from discovery to commercialization.
• Has relocated its family of centers into a new facility to make it easier than ever to gain access to our services.

IOWA Centers for Enterprise programs optimize the flow of University intellectual property into opportunities for licensing, commercialization and business development. To support this goal, we:
• Operate an aggressive program of technology transfer and new business development.
• Offer improved and better coordinated support for existing businesses that involves appropriate colleges, faculty members and other services as needed.
• Created “one door to a University of possibilities.” This means when businesses and individuals call on the IOWA Centers for Enterprise we will help them find the resources they need within the greater University.
• Have exciting plans for a new business incubator at our Technology Innovation Center located on the UI’s Oakdale Research Park.
• Continue to build on the strength of our excellent and highly ranked John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center to further incorporate training and support for faculty, staff and student entrepreneurship.

IOWA Centers for Enterprise is home to representatives from the following centers and offices:
Office of the Associate Vice President for Economic Development
Office of Corporate Partnerships
University of Iowa Research Foundation
Small Business Development Center
John Pappajohn Entrepreneurial Center
Oakdale Research Park
Technology Innovation Center

IOWA Centers for Enterprise also collaborates with key liaisons in nine of the University of Iowa’s colleges.
